

Discover international skills: How to contribute to international skills for all?

15 October 2018

Susanne Feiertag

Senior policy officer

Internationalisation for all the Dutch case

The agenda for continuous internationalisation from primary to higher education focuses on

- 1) the need to acquire competency in English (German, French) in every education sector
- 2) the need to acquire intercultural/international competences in every education sector.

Discussion

Why are international skills important (to you and how could you make it work)?

