SPREAD THE WORD

Building on the energy of the 47th WorldSkills Competition, the WorldSkills Conference inspires excellence, innovation, and connection under the theme “Moving TVET to the top of the global agenda”.

Despite ample evidence of the benefits of high-quality TVET programmes to fuel economies and equip both young people and adults for the major shifts in the labour market, TVET continues to lack traction in the global agenda for sustainable development.

With the United Nations Summit of the Future taking place within days from WorldSkills Lyon 2024, we will influence the Post-2030 agenda to finally recognize TVET as critical for sustainable development.

Join us to bring skills leaders from around the world together for THE unmissable skills event of the year.

POWERPOINT PRESENTATION

WorldSkills Conference has provided a Microsoft PowerPoint overview presentation for your conference promotion needs.

Invitation to WorldSkills Lyon 2024 and WorldSkills Conference 2024

Dear <insert>

It is with great pleasure that we invite you to WorldSkills Lyon 2024, which will be held from 10 to 15 September 2024 in Lyon, France. The world's largest skills event will bring together more than 1,500 skilled youth from over 65 countries and regions to compete in 62 skill competitions.

WorldSkills inspires young people to develop their abilities, expand their network, and push themselves in every aspect of their careers. Selected to represent their country or region through competitions at regional and national levels, WorldSkills Competitors have demonstrated how skills can empower communities, fuel economies, and change worlds.

Held alongside WorldSkills Lyon 2024, is WorldSkills Conference 2024. From 11 to 12 September, WorldSkills will lead a global conversation about the importance of Technical and Vocational Education and Training (TVET).

This two-day conference, held from 11 to 12 September, will bring together governments, policymakers, industry, education providers, and youth, providing a unique platform for exchange and action.

Despite ample evidence of the benefits of high-quality TVET programmes to fuel economies and equip both young people and adults for the major shifts in the labour market, TVET continues to lack traction in the global agenda for sustainable development.

Under the theme of "Moving TVET to the top of the global agenda" the programme will address excellence in TVET, assessment, gender segregation in skills, the transition to green economies, skill development for fragile economies, digitalization, AI, and much more.

While in Lyon, you will be amongst the world's leading change-makers, committed to advancing apprenticeship and skills development. Space is limited for this event and we encourage you to register for priority access which is currently available for WorldSkills Members and partners at <https://worldskillsconference2024.com>.

The WorldSkills Conference team is available to answer any questions you may have and can be reached at conference@worldskills.org

The WorldSkills Conference 2024 colour palette has been created to accompany the core WorldSkills International and WorldSkills Lyon 2024 colours.

- Always reproduce the colours using the specifications shown here
- Do not add your own colours to the palette
- Use the supporting colours sparingly
- When applying type over the colours always ensure there is enough contrast between the text colour and the background colour to ensure legibility.

CANVA TEMPLATES
