

GLOBAL SKILLS MARKETPLACE TIMETABLE. 7 OCTOBER 2011

9.00-9.50	10.05-10.55	11.15-12.05	13.00-13.50	14.05-14.55
Round 1	Round 2	Round 3	Round 4	Round 5
1/2A - TITLE: Skills for success: Partnerships and Youth Promotion as the backbone of economies around the world. Four countries' approaches		3A - TITLE: A tale of two mega cities, London and Sao Paulo	4A - TITLE: The future of education in Europe	5A - TITLE: Meeting the Skills Challenge in the Arabic World
1B - TITLE: From NEET to Work. Action with support from the European Social Fund	2B - TITLE: Best Practices - National European Social Fund award winning projects that make a difference	3B - TITLE: The Future of WorldSkills: Tapping into global youth networks.	4B - TITLE: New and Innovative Skills Policy and Practice: The Samsung case	5B - TITLE: Survival, Recover, Growth - Where do Apprenticeships fit in? Shaping the future, the Australian 'Group Training' way.
1C - TITLE: NETCAM, Technology for tomorrow's education, training & assessment. Online live demonstration	2C - TITLE: The Edge Hotel School - an intriguingly different experience of higher education	3C - TITLE: Generation i - the 21st Century Apprentice. Listening to the messages of young people - implications for apprenticeship development programmes	4C - TITLE: Empowering the technical workforce with tools and technology	5C - TOPIC: Eyes on the future - how emerging technologies will influence who we train, how we train and what we believe
	2D - TITLE: For the industry by the industry - the Skillset Tick of approval	3D - TITLE: Partnerships in education and employment - Cisco	4D - TITLE: Empowering communities and raising living standards in Malaysia through skills training and life long learning	5D - TITLE: The Dutch approach for demand driven Vocational Education and Training: Industry and education, the Dutch success story
1E - TITLE: From Mutual Understanding to Mutual Recognition through the European Qualification Framework	2E - TITLE: Learning in the workplace is a union matter.	3E - TITLE: What are they thinking? Images and perceptions of European citizens of the Vocational Education and Training Path	4E - TITLE: MoVE - What does Vocational Excellence look like? Sharing the Competitor experience
1F - TITLE: Innovation in construction for higher skills required to support global demands.	2F - TITLE: India: A Global Vocational Education & Training Marketplace in the making	3F - TITLE: How to give employers a real voice in skills development – international experience within and outside the sectors body system.		15.00 – 16.30 WorldSkills Foundation - Come and discover what it means to be a 'WorldSkills Advocate' - Complimentary session