

WORLD SKILLS MORE THAN JUST THE WORLD'S BIGGEST SKILL COMPETITION

WorldSkills is the global hub for skills development and excellence. Through international cooperation and development between industry, government, organizations, and institutions, we promote the benefits of and need for skilled professionals through grass-roots community projects, skill competitions and knowledge exchange. We show how important skills education and training is for youth, industries, and society, by challenging young professionals around the world to become the best in the skill of their choice.

Founded in 1950, WorldSkills is a global organization that promotes vocational, technological and service oriented education and training. We promote skilled careers in 72 Member countries and regions, all working with youth, educators, governments, and industries to help prepare the workforce and talent of today for the jobs of the future. WorldSkills brings youth, industries, and educators together to give youth the chance to compete, experience, and learn how to become the best in their skill of choice. From the traditional trades to multi-skilled technology careers in the industry and service sectors, supported by partners, industries, governments, volunteers, and educational institutions, WorldSkills is making a direct impact on raising the level of skills throughout the world.

WorldSkills is an excellent networking resource for member agencies or bodies which have national/regional responsibility for promoting vocational education and training, and skills excellence in their respective countries or regions.

WorldSkills uses leading-edge web and software technologies to provide its Members and global audience with easy access to current information on skills standards, competition events and specialist discussion forums.

Visitors to www.worldskills.org can learn about the 64 year history and mission of WorldSkills, be introduced to its Members, Delegates, and Global Partners, find more information about Competitions and projects, see the skills and quality standards in over 45 promoted skill competitions, and read some of the great individual success stories.

WORLD SKILLS HOW DOES IT WORK?

As an international movement, WorldSkills is the global voice of workplace skills promotion. We use SKILL COMPETITIONS AND PROJECTS, EDUCATION AND TRAINING, ADVOCACY, INTERNATIONAL DEVELOPMENT AND COOPERATION, CAREER, AND RESEARCH to bring together industry, government, and education organizations to drive an international skills agenda designed to create economic stability for all people and freedom of choice for all youth.

WorldSkills operates a wide range of activities to fulfil its mission. The core activity of this programme is the WorldSkills Competition. It is the biggest skills Competition in the world and is held every two years in one of its Member countries or regions. It promotes world class standards in over 45 skills ranging from Cabinetmaking to Web Design, Automobile Technology to Mechatronics, Hairdressing to Electrical Installations, and IT Network Systems Administration to Welding.

Over four days of competition, young people drawn from Member countries and regions, test themselves against tough global standards. The ultimate reward is gold, silver or bronze medals. And the scale of the event is unrivalled. Approximately 1,000 Competitors take part. Their progress is keenly watched by hundreds of thousands of visitors which include policy makers, government representatives, employers, teachers, trainers, and experts from around the world.

For all the young people who take part it is an invaluable, unique learning experience. Many of the Competitors go on to act as ambassadors for their respective skills and promote excellence in vocational education and training in their own countries/regions.

"There has never been a more appropriate time for countries and regions across the globe to invest in the development of skills excellence.

Involvement in WorldSkills is one way in which standards in skills can be raised around the world ensuring that economies can be strengthened.

By celebrating the talents of our young people we are able to inspire future generations to value and respect vocational careers and the personal rewards they offer."

— Simon Bartley
President, WorldSkills

"We share the WorldSkills mission of generating interest in skills among young people worldwide. We have always recognized that WorldSkills has enormous potential beyond the biennial Competition.

That's why we have all joined forces to create powerful networks of stakeholders in vocational education and training. The result is a true win-win situation which benefits young people, worldwide economies, and the interests of the Global Industry Partners. Together, we are developing a highly skilled, well prepared workforce."

— Global Partner Statement
