

SHARING SUCCESS

THREE THEMES

- 1 Skills for sustainable growth - the role of skills competitions
- 2 Keeping Competitors engaged beyond the Competition
- 3 The world's top skills performers - how do they do it?

Learning from the best as they share their secrets of success is the focus of the 2012 Leaders Forum. The programme promises to deliver some excellent insights and ideas and spark debate around skills development issues faced by economies around the world.

- Learn how the Skills Funding Agency with its £4 billion budget embraces training and skills competitions in England.
- Learn how to keep Competitors engaged with skills and skills organisations. Hear the strategies which have been adopted by Korea and the UK for developing successful Alumni Associations.
- Learn how to be at the top of the league tables. Hear from the two top performing countries in WorldSkills Competitions over the last decade.
